

will work for our government to regain its fiscal discipline.

Mr. ETHERIDGE. Madam Speaker, I rise in support of H.J. Res. 45, the Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act, PAYGO.

As a former small business owner, I know the importance of keeping your books balanced and your budget in order. The PAYGO Act's concept is simple, if you propose new spending or reduced revenues it must be paid for by reducing spending in other areas.

Today's vote in favor of Statutory PAYGO is one of the most important actions Congress has taken towards ensuring economic discipline and restoring a balanced federal budget. PAYGO does not solve all of our budget problems overnight, but it has a history of bipartisan support and proven results dating back to the 1990s. During my first term, PAYGO helped right the ship and put our nation on a path toward replacing deficits with surpluses.

PAYGO has a proven track record of success, turning deficits in record surpluses under President Clinton. As we work to address the deficits we have inherited from the last administration, PAYGO is a key part of our effort to restore balance.

As a member of the House Budget Committee, I support Statutory PAYGO, and I urge my colleagues to join me in voting for the passage of H.J. Res. 45.

Mr. BOYD. I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. All time for debate has expired.

Pursuant to House Resolution 1065, the previous question is ordered.

The question of adoption of the motion is divided. The first portion of the divided question is on concurring in the matter preceding title 1 of the Senate amendment.

Pursuant to House Resolution 1065, the first portion of the divided question is adopted.

The second portion of the divided question is: Will the House concur in the matter comprising titles 1 and 2 of the Senate amendment?

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. RYAN of Wisconsin. Madam Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX, this 15-minute vote on adoption of the second portion of the divided question will be followed by a 5-minute vote on the motion to suspend the rules on House Resolution 960.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—yeas 233, nays 187, not voting 14, as follows:
